

CLAYTON RETIRES AT WILSON'S WISH

Alabama Senatorial Race Is Clarified When Only Two Candidates Stay.

Because the President wrote a letter to Congressman Henry D. Clayton, suggesting that he remain in the House to handle the Administration's anti-trust bills next session, the Alabama Senatorial situation is much clarified today.

Mr. Clayton, who was an active candidate for the Senate against Mr. Underwood and Mr. Hobson, and who held credentials for the unexpired Johnston term, which the Senate did not feel able to accept because of the anti-trust law, has decided to stay at the helm of the House Judiciary Committee. It is believed that Mr. Clayton leaves the Senatorial race with considerable reluctance, as he regarded his prospects good.

The withdrawal of Mr. Clayton at the indirect suggestion of the President leaves the field between Mr. Hobson and Mr. Underwood.

In a statement issued following the receipt of the President's letter, Congressman Clayton said:

"Recognizing the President as the head of the party, I do not see how I can refuse to accede to his express wishes. However, I will make a formal reply to the President in a day or two."

The President's letter to Mr. Clayton, which constitutes rather a remarkable document, reads:

"My Dear Mr. Clayton:

"I am a great deal concerned at the thought of losing you from the working force of the House of Representatives. As the chief direction of affairs in the present session has lain with the Committee on Ways and Means and the Committee on Banking and Currency, I foresee that the chief responsibilities of the next session will lie with the Committee on Judiciary, of which you are chairman. I was looking forward with great satisfaction to working with you and having your experienced counsel and assistance in the work that is before us. It seems to me, indeed, indispensable in the carrying out of our party's program.

"I do not deem myself at liberty to suggest to you anything that would interfere with your own personal plans, and I feel rather selfish in saying what I am saying. But I considered it a matter of more public duty on my part to say how earnestly I had desired that I might have your aid and counsel as chairman of the Judiciary Committee during the next session and the next Congress—for our work cannot be finished in a single session. If I accomplish no more by this than giving myself the pleasure of letting you know my personal estimate of you, I shall, at any rate, have discharged my conscience in the matter, and said what was really in my mind and heart. If I dared, I would beg you to remain in the House."

"Cordially and sincerely yours,"

"WOODROW WILSON."

PRINCE GEORGE JURY STILL BUSY

HYATTSVILLE, Md., Oct. 11.—The grand jury of the October session of the circuit court for Prince George county is at present at work at the court house in Upper Marlboro, hardly expects to finish before the middle of next week. It is understood that it will report in the neighborhood of a score of indictments, including several for murder, this afternoon.

Aquilla T. Robinson, of Brandywine district, is foreman of the grand jury. Dr. Baldwin is clerk and George M. McFarland is assistant clerk. The other members are Thomas E. Beane, Thomas M. Baldwin, William S. Chichester, Benedict Havener, Daniel Buck, John W. Wheatley, Owen L. Swann, George W. Rawlings, William H. Wilson, Christopher Leopoldt, William Maske, Milton B. Brooke, Charles A. Ryan, H. Clay Hopkins, Herbert M. Hardy, Herbert Lusby, Joseph Tarmen, William C. Crandall, Frank B. Haskell, George T. Underwood and Charles F. Fenwick.

Monday being Columbus Day, a legal holiday in Maryland, the court will not be in session on that day, and the petit jurors for the second week will not be required to report until Tuesday at 10 o'clock. The jurors for the second week are Zack P. Chaney, George L. Gibbons, John O. Hoffman, William P. Magruder, John E. West, William P. Fink, W. Tilden Davis, John A. Dixon, Harold Slingluff, Harvey S. Naylor, Robert H. Robinson, J. W. Windsor, Samuel O. Taymon, L. M. Naylor, William W. Brady, Columbus Pumpfrey, Alexander Gude, James H. D. Keiner, Fred A. Voland, William M. Eubank, John W. Roberts, Jr., George O. DeMarr, L. C. Donaldson, J. Henry Kirby, and Crittendon C. Clark.

Town funds in the hands of the town treasurer can not be attached by parties having claims against persons contracting with the municipality. This principle, based upon a decision of the State court of appeals, was upheld by Justice of the Peace Louis O. Wissman, when L. L. Gray, a local livery stable keeper, sought to attach money in the hands of Town Treasurer William A. Shepherd claimed to be due by Harry Lewis, a local contractor, to Gray, Gray, who noted an appeal, declares he will take the case to the highest court in the State.

Mother's Advice To Her Daughter

A Real Live Doll to Fondle Is Woman's Greatest Happiness.

She is wisdom itself who knows of or learns of that famous remedy, Mother's Friend. It is an external application for the abdominal muscles and breasts. It has a wonderful influence, allays all fear, banishes all pain, is a grateful encouragement to the expectant mother, and permits her to go through the period happily in mind, destined to anticipate woman's greatest happiness as nature intended she should.

The action of Mother's Friend makes the muscles pliant and responsive to expansion. Thus all strain and tension upon the nerves and ligaments is avoided, and, in place of a period of discomfort and consequent dread it is a season of calm repose and joyful expectation.

There is no nausea, no morning sickness, no nervous twitching, none of that constant strain known to so many women.

This splendid remedy can be had of any druggist at $1.00 a bottle. Write to Bradford Regulator Co., 22 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga., for their book to expectant mothers.—Adv.

COLUMBUS KNIGHTS AT ANNUAL VESPER

Councils of District Will Assemble at St. Teresa's Church, Anacostia, Tomorrow Evening, When the Rev. E. J. Connelly Will Deliver the Sermon.

WASHINGTON TIMES BUREAU.

ANACOSTIA, D. C., Oct. 11.

The annual vesper service of the Knights of Columbus in the District will be held in St. Teresa's Church, Thirteenth and V streets, tomorrow evening at 7:30 o'clock. This will be the first time that an assemblage of this kind has taken place in St. Teresa's Church. There are five councils of the order in the District and it is expected that 1,000 men will be present.

Members of the order will assemble in the basement hall at 7:15 p. m. and march in a body to the place of the ceremonies. Fourth degree members, who will be attired in full regalia, will serve as a guard of honor at the service.

The Rev. C. O. Rosensteel, chaplain of Washington chapter, will officiate, assisted by chaplains of the various councils throughout the city. The Rev. Eugene J. Connelly, of the Church of the Immaculate Conception, will preach the sermon. Music will be given by the male choir of St. Paul's Church.

Anacostia Methodist Episcopal Church was filled last night with ministers and members of the congregation at a reunion and banquet. In the rear sections of the edifice tables for more than 300 guests were arranged, bearing as decorations cut flowers, and waited upon by a corps of women from the Ladies' Aid Society, with Mrs. Arthur B. Suit, president, in charge.

The Rev. G. Letoy, pastor, was toastmaster. Among the ministers called upon to speak were the Rev. Dr. William L. McDowell, superintendent of Washington Methodist district; the Rev. Dr. Haggerty, pastor of Feltworth M. E. Church, and the Rev. Mr. White. The superintendents of the various departments of Anacostia church responded for their respective sections, as follows: Arthur B. Suit, superintendent of the Sunday school; Charles E. Linger, for the brotherhood; Daniel C. Smithson, for the choir; Ralph Williamson, for the senior Epworth League; Mrs. Grace Suit, for the Ladies' Aid Society; Mrs. Samuel Campbell, for the missionary organizations and primary school. Miss Pearl Zirkle, for the junior Epworth League.

Vocal solos and selections on the piano were given by Mrs. Grace Linger, Mrs. Orm, sr., Miss Edie Smith, Miss Edith M. Pyles, Harold King, Edward Murphy, Harry I. Wedding, and Milton Kelly.

Funeral services for Mrs. Bridget Soper, who died suddenly on Thursday forenoon at her residence, 1224 U street, were held this morning at 9 o'clock in St. Teresa's Church. Burial was in Mt. Olivet Cemetery. Mrs. Soper was a resident of Anacostia for more than twenty-five years and prior to coming here had lived with her family on the reservation at the Government Hospital for the Insane, where her husband, has been employed since the establishment of the institution. Mrs. Soper was an employee of the Government Hospital in its early days and was before her marriage a Miss Bridget Lavlin. She is survived by her husband and two children. The children are Mrs. Annie Montgomery and George Soper.

The Child-Welfare Association of Anacostia has resumed its meetings, the first one of the season taking place Thursday evening in the Ketcham School. Little more was done than to prepare for the year's work.

Miss Daisy Phillips and brother, Howard Phillips, of Talburt street, are in Thurmont, Md., where they are guests of Miss Lillian Yents.

Minneapolis Tribe, No. 14, Improved Order of Red Men, received notification last night at its meeting in Anacostia Masonic Hall of the schedule of visitations arranged for the great chiefs to the different reservations during the fall and winter. Minneapolis Tribe will be the third lodge to be visited. The ceremony will take place on the night of October 24 in the local Masonic Hall. The visitations of the great chiefs began at Logan Tribe, No. 8, on October 3, and they will end with a reception at Osage Tribe, No. 6, on the night of December 15.

Dr. Grace De Witt, a member of the medical staff of the Government Hospital for the Insane, has gone to Montrose, Pa., to attend the marriage of her sister, Miss Mary De Witt, and the Rev. Dr. Watson.

FUNERAL SERVICE FOR WM. E. ALLEN

Hunting Hill Resident Is Laid to Rest at Rockville Union Cemetery.

ROCKVILLE, Oct. 11.—Funeral services for William E. Allen, who died at his home at Hunting Hill, Thursday, aged sixty-two years, were held at the family home today, the Rev. Oscar W. Henderson, pastor of the Rockville Baptist Church, officiating. The interment was in Rockville Union Cemetery.

Mr. Allen had been in poor health for several months, but his death was not expected and was very sudden, occurring while he was sitting in a chair. He was a life-long resident of this county and was widely known. He is survived by his wife, who was before her marriage a Miss Gates, of this county.

Richard F. Phelps, of Brooklyn, Anne Arundel County, Md., and Miss Esther A. Ranjo, of East Brooklyn, were married in Rockville Thursday afternoon by Rev. Samuel R. White, of the Baptist Church, at the home of the minister. Dennis Curtin and Miss Della Lendhan, both of Washington, were also married here Thursday afternoon, returning to the city immediately afterward.

Cora Smith, the young colored woman who was struck on the head at Derwood, this county, with a stone or piece of iron, died in a Washington hospital yesterday. Her husband, Beverly Smith, who gave himself up Monday morning and admitted having struck his wife, was released on bail but will be rearrested on a charge of murder.

The husband claims that his wife attacked him with a knife and chased him with a gun and that he struck her in self defense. He will be given a preliminary hearing in the Police Court here within the next few days.

Anacostia Notes.

Dr. J. A. F. Pfeiffer, of the Government Hospital for the Insane, is spending his vacation in Baltimore.

Mrs. George Delmage and child, of Fourteenth street, have gone to Suitland, Md., to visit relatives.

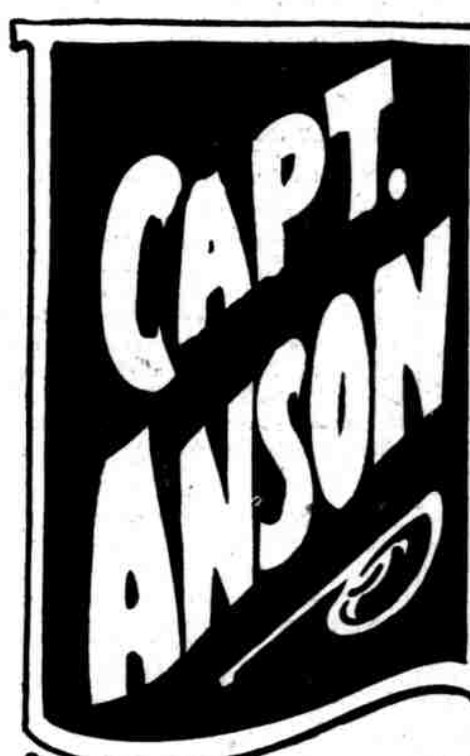

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Sutherland, of the Government Hospital, are in Bealeton, Va., visiting friends.

COSMOS

CONTINUOUS DAILY 1 TO 10 45
CONCERTS SUNDAY 3 TO 10 30

ADMISSION 10-15-25

Week of October 13

"THE DADDY of BASEBALL"

In a great monologue
and stories of the Worlds Series.

Roses to Ladies
Every Night.

THE HURSLEY TROUPE

5 Lightning
ACROBATS

ROSE CARNIVAL

Cluster of Roses
To Ladies
EVERY NIGHT.

WESLYN AND NICHOLL'S

In a Singing Skit—
"CUPIDS LADDER"

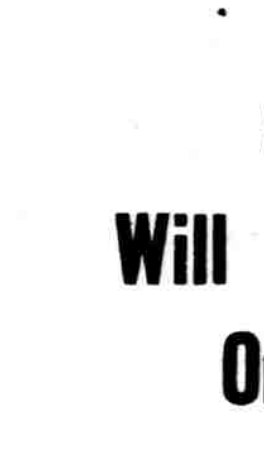

MICHAEL BRAHME AND CO.

In a one act satire
"A DOGS OPINION"

THE MASSES

Juggling Jokers in
"Fun In A Dining Room"

Sixth Act
Will Be Announced
On Program

Special Feature

In Addition to Regular

Sunday Concert

The Glockenspiel Polka

Jack Gresset, Soloist

Composed by A. J. MANVELL, Conductor.

Introducing the New Lyrphone Bells, specially made for Mr. Gresset, and the first instrument of its kind in any theater.

Rose Carnival

Every Evening Next Week

A Souvenir of "Roses"

to All Lady Visitors

By Courtesy of

LEAPLEY & MEYERS

905 G St. N. W.

AND THE COSMOS COMPANY

BUY IT BY THE BOX

of twenty packages—it costs less—of any dealer—and stays fresh until used

Chew it after every meal

Look for the spear